Story 1: The coronavirus _____ changed the world, and it had an impact on _____. In the US, 500,000 people already died from COVID-19, and it made many people _____ and scared. Nobody _____ that so many people would die. Experts said that the _____ was very serious, and it would not get better soon. Something this terrible _____ more than one hundred years ago when the Spanish flu killed millions of people in all of the world. The White House medical advisor said that people could still wear _____ in 2022. Only 15% of Americans got the COVID-19 _____, but the US president promised that the number would get much higher by summer. He said that this year's Christmas could be much nicer than Christmas last year.

Story 2:

Two women dressed up to look like grannies because they _____ to get the coronavirus vaccine. The women _____ hats, gloves, and glasses when they arrived at the _____ in Florida, US. They changed their _____ years in vaccination documents and they hoped that they would get a vaccine. In the US, people who are 65 and older get the vaccine first, but the women were only 34 and 44 years old. The staff saw that the birth dates in the documents and the birth dates in their _____ were different. A police officer asked the women to leave and he said that they could not come back.

Some people want the vaccine and they will try anything to get it. A man tried to _____ health workers with his father's documents because his father had the same name as him.
